Section 2: Important Message for Elizabeth's Parents

You have chosen to help Elizabeth by working with her to take the BOTS DISC profile assessment. We want to commend you for this desire and for spending this time with Elizabeth. Use this opportunity to learn new things about her and her personality.

Understanding is what she needs first from you. You have given Elizabeth the freedom to make selections in the BOTS assessment, and now this report is providing some feedback for you to review.

We have endeavored to develop an assessment tool using pictures and stories that allows us to determine the personality blend of the children ages 4-12. Overall, we have found that the results are usually accurate, but we fully recognize that there is room for adjustments. Naturally, the younger a student is, the less objective and predictable responses may be.

We recommend that you view the results of this report as a 'snapshot' of Elizabeth's personality. Realize that results can vary to some degree, so these results are not to be considered conclusive. We certainly believe that these results are fairly accurate and provide a good starting point for you to approach Elizabeth in a more effective way.

The entire experience is a learning tool for both of you. We hope you benefit from spending time trying to understand Elizabeth. Perhaps you will think more deeply about what motivates her to behave the way she does.

Elizabeth's self-awareness is growing as she grows, so you want to encourage that growth while also allowing for her age and maturity level. If Elizabeth happened to make choices in the assessment that seem to indicate who she would LIKE to be rather than who you think she REALLY IS, then it could mean that Elizabeth needs your encouragement to recognize, accept and appreciate how special she is. In that case, simply focus on affirming her as a special young person with value and worth to you and to others and herself. Just like you, we want Elizabeth to grow to become all that she is meant to be. Use this opportunity to help your relationship be even more open and honest.

We hope you enjoy this great opportunity to learn to relate better with Elizabeth!

Something to think about ...

Elizabeth, have you ever thought about what you are good at? Strengths are the part of your personality that help you to do certain things very well. When you know what your strengths are, it is easier for you to think of things to do and ways to help. It is a wonderful thing to have strengths, but it is even better to use your strengths to help someone else.

Elizabeth here is how to be your best!

Think Before You Speak

You tend to get excited easily. Take a little extra time and slow down so you can think about what you need to say.

Be Cautious With Others

Be careful about trusting others before they have proved they can be trusted. There are times when people need to prove themselves before you can feel safe and comfortable around them.

Take Time to Finish Things

You are eager to do things and try to keep people happy. It is better to finish one thing before starting another.

Make Sensible Decisions

Watch out for making decisions too quickly. Things you decide might not make everyone happy all the time. Take the time to make the right decision.

Something to think about ...

Remember, Elizabeth, you have a wonderful personality! You are specially designed. No one is quite like you. That is what makes you so important. Keep up the good work as you try to be your best.
